Founded by Paul de Chomedy, Sieur de Maisonneuve in 1642, Montréal quickly became a bustling, cosmopolitan city. An island metropolis in the St.Lawrence River and major North American city, it is an epicurian delight. It celebrated its 350th anniversary in 1992 and is world famous for its summer festivals, cafes, culture, and night life.

In the 1840's it was briefly named the capital of British North America, but rioters hastened its replacement in Ontario. Montréal has been host to the World's Fair — Expo 67, the Summer Olympics in 1976, and weathered an exhausting helter skelter of political upheaval for decades.

Ste.Catherine St., Old Montréal, the Botanical Gardens, Mount Royal Park are just a sampling of the attractions that bring tourists here from all over the globe.

Also, it is a little known fact that the university derives its name from the motto of Montréal: Concordia Salus.

Historical

Background

The History of Loyola

In 1848, Collège Sainte-Marie was founded. Loyola College grew out of the English programme of Collège Sainte-Marie, and was established as a separate entity in 1896.

Growing enrollment at the college forced Loyola to move several times. From the corner of Bleury and Ste-Catherine street, it moved to Drummond street, before settling in Notre-Dame-de-Grâce in 1916.

The college offered preparatory studies for young men, opening its doors to women for enrollment only in 1959. Students were made up of high school and undergraduate students until 1921, when Loyola High School became a separate entity.

Curriculum at Loyola College grew from being classically-based to liberal arts-oriented, but theology and philosophy remained part of every student's degree between 1951 and 1972.

IN AUGUST 1974, SIR GEORGE WILLIAMS UNIVERSITY MERGED WITH LOYOLA COLLEGE TO FORM CONCORDIA UNIVERSITY.

The History of Sir George Williams

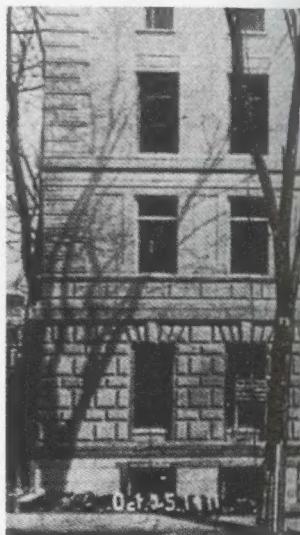

The Montreal YMCA was founded in 1851 and until 1873 it operated out of rented quarters. This building was the first in Montreal built by and for the YMCA, and it was occupied by them from 1873 until 1891. The building contained an assembly hall with a seating capacity of 600. The cost of the building and its furnishings was $60,000. It was in this building that the YMCA initiated evening classes in 1873-74. The program at that time expanded rapidly, and by 1926 it became known as Sir George William College and Schools.

THE ICE STORM

At the beginning of January, Ontario, Quebec and Atlantic Canada were hammered by days of freezing rain. A direct result of El Nino, the periodic climatological effect originating in the Pacific Ocean, destroyed trees, toppled hydro towers and cut off power to millions of people. Montreal was hit especially hard. Thousands of military personnel were called in for help. The metro shut down, entire municipalities were without power, and Concordia was closed for two weeks (remember Spring Break being cancelled?) At a cost of $1 billion, it was Canada's most costly natural disaster. For many, the effect was likened to the aftermath of a war. Emergency shelters were set up all over Montreal filled with scores of families without power. Hopefully it will never happen again.

WOMEN'S HOCKEY

It was a dream season for the Concordia Stingers women's hockey team. Not only did the Stingers win in their league and at every tournament they entered, but they also won the historic inaugural CIAU Women's Ice Hockey Championship. The national tournament involved six teams from across the country and was played at Concordia Arena from Feb. 26 to March 1. The Stingers defeated the Toronto Varsity Blues 4-1 in the championship game which was aired live on TSN and RDS.

The Stingers' overall record was 36-4 and they went 14-0 in the QSSF. In October of 1997 there was another big event for the women's team. The Stingers were invited to Lake Placid, N.Y., to play the U.S. Olympic Team. The Americans won the first game 10-0 and then edged the Stingers 4-2 in the second match. Jessika Audet was the goalie in the second game and she faced 76 shots.

With success comes a lot of individual honors. Corinne Swirsky was named the outstanding women's hockey player in the CIAU. She was also named the outstanding female athlete in Quebec, which made her a finalist for the prestigious Howard Mackie Award. Karen Kendall won the TSN Award, which is presented to the female hockey player that best combines athletics, academics and community involvement. Swirsky, Delaney Collins and Anne Rodrigue were All-Canadians. Swirsky was voted the outstanding player at the nationals, while Rodrigue was named to the championship all-star team. Concordia's QSSF all-stars were Swirsky, Collins, Rodrigue and Audet. At the annual athletics award banquet, Swirsky was named the Female Athlete of the Year, Deana Huyghebaert was the Female Rookie of the Year and Catherine Bertrand was named the Fittest Female Athlete.

The Concordia Stingers men's hockey team had one of its worst starts ever. There was a rash of injuries to key players and that was reflected in an 0-6 start. By mid-November many of the injured players had recovered and were making it back into the lineup. That's when the team's fortune's changed. The Stingers were undefeated in their next seven games and went on to finish the season with a 13-11-2 record, which was good enough for second place in the OUA Far East Division.

Concordia defeated the McGill Redmen two games to one in the division semifinal and then met the UQTR Patriotes in the Far East Final. Although the Patriotes took the series in three straight games, it was the Stingers' best season of the 1990s.

There were many individual honors. Captain Dave Szabo and Eric Nadeau were OUA East second team all-stars. Patrick Groleau, the leading scorer on the team, was named the Concordia Male Academic Athlete of the Year at the Stingers' year-end banquet. Nadeau was also the team's MVP and first-year defenceman Eric Sylvestre was the team's Rookie of the Year.

Women's Rugby

Under the guidance of rookie head coach Sheila Turner, the Concordia Stingers women's rugby team had a great season. After a couple of poor seasons, the Stingers clawed their way back to respectability with a 3-2-2 win-loss-tie record. Despite the strong showing, the Stingers missed the playoffs.

Three Stingers were named to the QSSF all-star team. They were: Erin Dance, Dominiques Desroches and Tara Neal. The team MVP was Erin Dance and the outstanding rookie was Candace Patterson.

Team Members: Jessica Auer, Suzanne Babb, Alexandra Bremner, Amy Buckland, Julie Boulanger, Carole Choiniere, Erin Dance, Dominiques Desroches, Alysha Donnan-Brogden, Rebecca Elie, Nelly Etienne, Catherine Garin, Marie-Michelle Gaudreau, Shona Harvey, Danielle Hurtubise, Kimberly Kieran, Isabelle Labrie, Alice Li, Amy MacDonald, Tricia McKenzie, Alexandra Miguel, Laura Murray, Tara Neal, Candace Patterson, Alison Piela, Kim Poirier, Marie Valderrama, Cristal Zavala

Men's Rugby

The Concordia Stingers men's rugby team set out to defend its 1996 provincial championship with a convincing 76-0 victory over the UQTR Patriotes on Sept. 14. But from there on in things were tougher. The Stingers were relentless in their pursuit of excellence but were only able to post a 3-4 win-loss record. Then on Nov. 2, Concordia suffered a heart-breaking 12-11 semifinal loss to the McGill Redmen.

Alfred Demartino was named the Stingers MVP, while Ray Mohammed was named the outstanding rookie on the team.

After struggling the last ten years the Concordia women's soccer team seems ready to turn the corner. Despite a 3-9 win-loss record in 1997, the Stingers were a very competitive team. They were good enough to play with and defeat any team in the QSSF, except possibly the powerhouse Université Laval Rouge et Or. The Stingers trained all winter and enjoyed playing some indoor competitions, where they enjoyed a fair amount of success.

Tania Morsani was named to the QSSF second all-star team. The Stingers' MVP was Tanya Wutschert and the team's rookie of the year was Karina Rivest.

Top: Ari Angelopoulos, Yann adis, Ron Eliakim, Mike Bichara, Jason Rose, Andrew Adams

Under the director of veteran head coach Vladhir Pavlicik, the Concordia men's soccer team finished the 1997 season with a 4-4-2 record in the QSSF, including two regular season wins over the powerful McGill Redmen. But the crosstown rivals won the most important game matchup of the year, McGill defeated Concordia 3-0 in the QSSF semifinal.

Four Stingers took all-star honors in 1997. Mid-fielders Ari Angelopoulos and Scott Patterson were named to the Quebec Student Sports Federation (QSSF) first all-star team, while forward Mark Cesari and mid-fielder Anthony Primiani were named to the second all-star team. Ari Angelopoulos was the team's MVP.

Top: Keith Pruden (head coach), Wanita Jones, Guylaine Blanchette, Maxime Ratzlaff, Marie-Hélène Héroux, Deborah Pellerin, Jaime Sochasky (student therapist), Bob Maks (assistant coach)

For the second straight year, the Concordia women's basketball team won the Quebec conference and earned a berth in the CIAU national championship in Thunder Bay, Ont. The Stingers went into the nationals seeded sixth and finished the prestigious eight-team tournament in sixth place. Concordia lost its first game 68-67 to the No. 3 seeded Regina Cougars. Next, they defeated the UPEI Panthers, the Atlantic conference champions, 74-66 to advance to the consolation final. The Stingers lost the fifth-place game 72-60 to the Western Mustangs. Concordia guard Wanita Jones was honored with the R.W. Pugh Fair Play Award for her performance at the championship.

The Stingers finished the season in first place in the QSSF with a 12-8 record and went on to win the QSSF playoffs with a 75-62 win over the Laval Rouge et Or in the championship game. They were 19-10 during the regular season and won two tournaments, the McGill Redbird and the Concordia Classic.

First team all-star honors went to forwards Marie-Hélène Héroux and Guylaine Blanchette. Guard Carol Anne Tull was a second team all-star.

Men's Basketball

The Concords men's basketball team rebounded from a tough year in 1996-'97 to enjoy a fair amount of success this season. The Stingers finished with a 12-8 win-loss record in their conference and went 17-15 overall. The team played in several tournaments including Dalhousie's Rod Sehvener in January which it won in impressive fashion. Guard Mark Spence was named tournament MVP and Quebec Male Athlete of the Week for his play in Halifax.

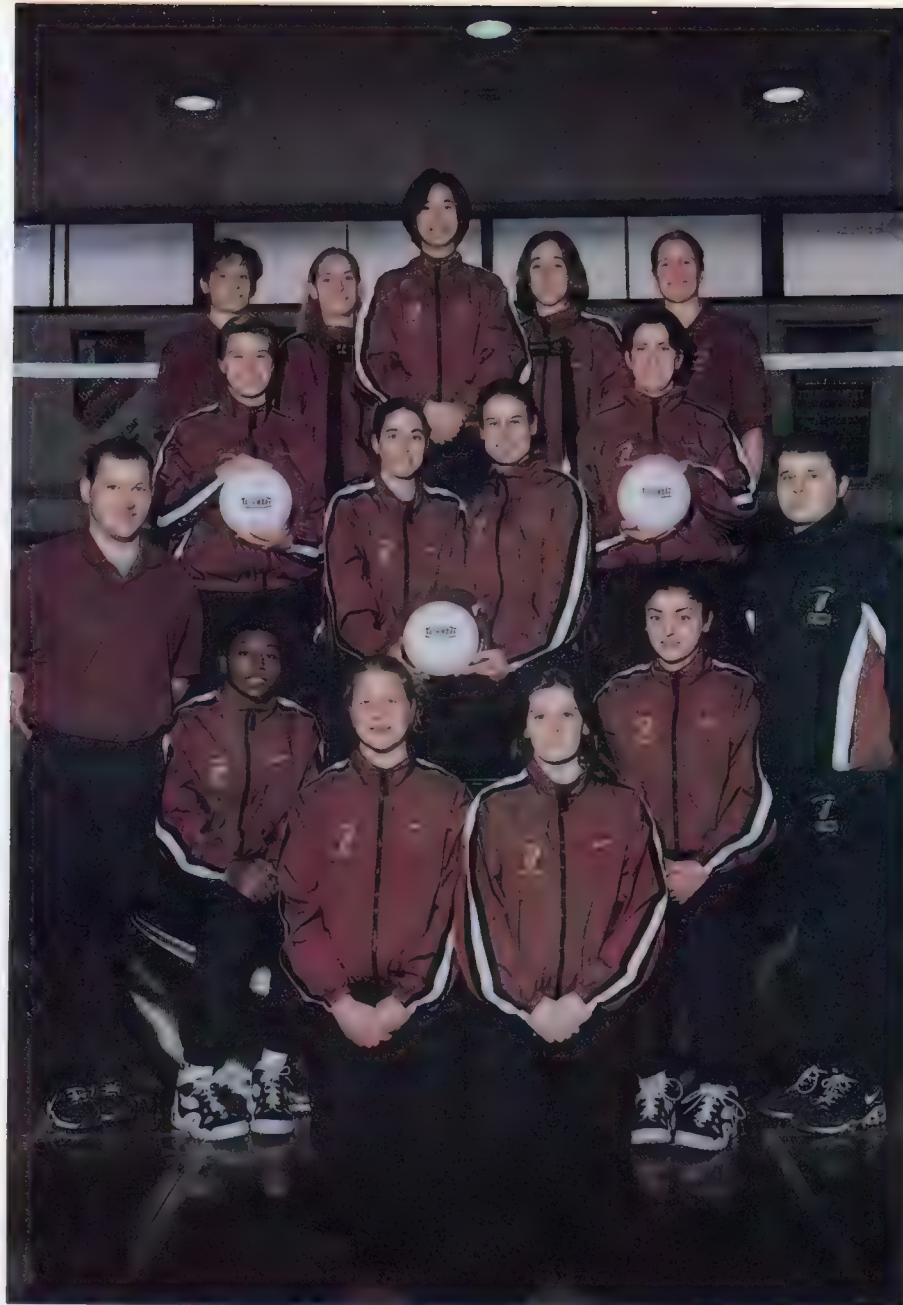

The team finished the regular season in fine form and was hoping to challenge Bishop's for the Quebec title. But a pesky and persistent team from Université Laval derailed the Stingers. The Rouge et Or defeated Concordia 85-81 in the Quebec semifinal.

Individual achievements for team members include forward Jay Prosper being named MVP of the Quebec conference and an honorable mention All-Canadian. First-year guard Mike Kieran was the QSSF Rookie of the Year and a second team all-star. Mark Spence was also named to the second all-star team.

Although the women's volleyball team struggled in the strong Quebec Student Sports Federation conference, posting an 0-16 win-loss record, the Stingers did better at tournaments and exhibitions. The team's overall record was 8-31. The Stingers won a bronze beating Queen's 3-1 in the medal game. A month later, Concordia collected a silver medal at the Queen's Golden Gaels tournament in Kingston, Ont. They defeated Carleton, Ryerson and the hosts before losing out to Guelph in the gold medal match.

Isabel Galiana was named to the all-star team at a couple of tournaments. She was also a QSSF second team all-star. Setter Sylvie Lacombe also took her share of honours, including the prestigious Denise Beaudet Award at Concordia's annual athletics banquet. It is presented to a female athlete who through leadership, sportsmanship and sacrifice demonstrates a commitment to excellence.

Wrestling

They may be few in number but the wrestling team makes up for it in sheer determination and results. Tamara Medwidksi, the first female wrestler to represent Concordia, finished first at Concordia Invitational, the Montreal Open, the Guelph Invitational and at the McMaster Invitational. She won a gold medal at the national championship. Jason Chen, another rookie, finished first at the AUAs, first at the UNB Open, first at the Western tournament and third at the Concordia Invitational. He won a bronze medal at the CIAU national championship. Finally, David Chodat, the veteran heavyweight, finished first at the AUAs, first at the Western tournament, first at the Concordia Invitational and third at the Guelph Invitational. He won a gold medal at the CIAU national championship and was named CIAU Athlete of the Week. Also, head coach Victor Zilberman was inducted into the Concordia Sports Hall of Fame. He has coached wrestling at the university for 21 years.

The 1997 football season was a strong one for the Stingers. In the second year of a rebuilding phase, Concordia posted a 5-3 win-loss record and finished in third place. The Stingers suffered a heartbreaking 25-30 loss to the Ottawa Gee-Gees in the semi-final game on Nov. 1. Concordia dominated the game until starting quarterback Sean Hoas was forced out with an injury at the start of the fourth quarter.

Season highlights include having Global, Montreal's new television station, televise the Shaughnessy Cup between McGill and Concordia. There were also many individual honours. Punter Dave Miller-Johnston and defensive tackle Jeff Anderson were named first team All-Canadians. Cornerback Lenroy Henry was a seconde team All-Canadian.

In January, Miller-Johnston went to Palo Alto, California, to represent Canadian university football in the annual East-West Shrine Football Classic. He suited up with 70 of the best college football players in North America. He was also picked second overall by the Toronto Argonauts in the CFL's annual draft. Capping off an exceptional year, Miller-Johnston was named Concordia's Male Athlete of the Year.

In a shady nook one moonlit night
A leprechaun I spied.
With scarlet cap and coat of green
A cruiskeen by his side.
'Twas tick tock tick his hammer went

Oh, I laugh to think he was caught at last,
But the fairy was laughing too.

Fifty eight guests celebrated the 25th Anniversary reunion of Thé-Arts Loyola for Homecoming 1997. Distance didn't deter revelers from gathering for the festivities. Lenny Carmella left Orlando's sun, John Corrigan took advantage of the chance to get out of Parlin New Jersey for the weekend, musical director, Pierre Perron traveled from Halifax. Vancouver sent five representatives: John Carswell, Alex Krantz, Dorothy Tansey, Bob Frampton, Bruce Hagerman. The rest came from Toronto, Ottawa and of course Montreal.

Most of the group were alumni, who as undergrads were members of a very successful student theatre group at Loyola College that presented Broadway musicals from 1972-1975. Twice (1972 & 1973) Thé-Arts Loyola swept the Quebec Drama Festival with Best Production, Best Actress and Best Director awards.

In a special article the week before our reunion Gazette theatre critic Pat Donnelly featured some of Thé-Arts alumni who have had successful careers in professional theatre in Canada. Edda Gburek-Buck, Kathy Michael McGlynn DiSantis, Marcia Tratt and Norberts Muncs, who is Director of the Technical Section of the National Theatre School, are prime examples.

Many others have maintained their interest in theatre by sharing their talents with Montreal groups including Lyric Theatre, Montreal West Operatic Society, Lyric Singers, Hudson Village Theatre, Jane Hackett, Nancy Stewart, Marie-Claude L'Ecuyer, Susan Colby-Germinaro, Linda Laroche, Valerie Glover-Drolet, Randy Davies, David Starsmore, Robin Glover-Sams, Dorothy Tansey and Brian Counihan are among this number.

Nancy Stewart of Concordia's Human Resources Department arranged and led a tour of the FC Smith Auditorium which has been altered considerably since most of the visitors appeared there 25 years ago. Guests renewed friendships during a cocktail party presided over by Alexandre Carpini, a very active alumnus.

The evening concluded with a dinner in the Loyola Faculty/Staff dining room and post dinner celebration that featured the distribution of a special anniversary reunion souvenir book that had been produced by Stephen Barber BA '82, a special friend to many of those who attended.

The evening was hosted by Brian Counihan, former Dean of Students at Concordia, Jane Hackett, secretary to the Dean of Students at Concordia, Randy Davies, Director and Choreographer of five Thé-Arts shows, Nancy Stewart of Concordia's Human Resources Department, David Starsmore, set and costume designer for Thé-Arts productions, Alexandre Carpini, Janice Moore and Stephen Barber.

FOR THE Many, FROM ONE OF THE Few

3TC™, our discovery for HIV/AIDS, makes BioChem Pharma one of the select few biopharmaceutical companies to see its research become a breakthrough product.

A breakthrough that's helping improve the quality of life for so many.

As always, we continue to focus our research and development efforts on unmet human health needs that medical science has yet to solve.
